The 2013 Supershot took place on Saturday 15th June with 26 teams taking part - a full compliment of teams for the second year running.

The overall Supershot champion for 2013 is John Le Bailly who scored a grand total of 511, which also won him the Veterans category too, repeating the feat of last year by Guy Thorn-Booth. Chris Clark was a mere 3 points behind John to bag second spot with Damian Harrison just another 3 points behind him for third position.

Top Lady of the day was Mary Eveleigh with a score of 470, nicely ahead of Stephanie Henwood in second, and Amy Hall in third place.

The top team of the day were the the On Target team who were John Le Fondre, Gerard

Baudains, James Baker & John Le Bailly.

Peter Quimby managed to retain his mentors title for a fourth straight year, with a score of 528 points, but was pushed hard this year with David Turner and Jonny Payn only 3 and 4 points behind him respectively.

Our congratulations to the winners, and thanks to everyone who was involved in this years event from those that took part as competitors, the mentors, the catering team, the number crunching team, the raffle team, the various teams manning the ranges through the day and not forgetting the Supershot super organising committee of Albert, Derek and Syd. Many thanks!
