The 2012 Supershot took place at the weekend with a record 26 teams taking part.

The overall Supershot champion for 2012 is Guy Thorn-Booth who scored a grand total of 573. Guy also took the honours in the Veterans category with his fine score. Our congratulations go to him on finally winning after many years of trying.

Top Lady of the day was Stephanie Cushing and the top team of the day were the Ministry of Fun.

Top mentor of the day was Peter Quimby with a new record score of 620 points - outstanding shooting!

Our congratulations to the winners, and thanks to everyone who was involved in this years event from those that took part as competitors, the mentors, the catering team, the number crunching team, the various teams manning the ranges through the day and not forgetting the Supershot super organising committee of Albert, Derek and Syd. Many thanks!
